

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION PORT MOLLER DISTRICT

Permit No. 12-W-1924

Otto Skoog

Nelson Lagoon.

May 21, 1924.

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, Otto Skoog, whose post office address is Nelson Lagoon, Alaska, is hereby authorized to engage in the taking of salmon at his station in Nelson Lagoon within the Port Moller district of the said reservation during the calendar year of 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may operate one (1) ninety (90) fathom gill net only on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, and during the remainder of the week no fishing operations shall be conducted.

2. That the total catch of salmon shall not exceed ten thousand (10,000) of all species.

3. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the Fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (Copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce, and subsequent permits will be granted on due consideration, only after the applicant has made a detailed report of the previous seasons operations to the Secretary of Commerce through the Commissioner of Fisheries.
